NSCERP- 2009

Invitation

Indian Society for Comparative Endocrinology is one among the few Indian Scientific bodies that have conducted symposium every alternate year at various venues nationwide. In the year 2009, the meeting is scheduled at the Institute of Science, Mumbai in Maharashtra, India with "National Symposium on Comparative Endocrinology and Reproductive Physiology: Current Advances" as the theme. Endocrinology, growth, metabolism and reproduction along with several themes related to the field are intertwined and therefore study of several aspects of growth, metabolism and hormone action would be deliberated at this meeting. In recent years, globalization and climatic change are the major impacts on animals both vertebrate and invertebrates and even on man leading to metabolic and reproductive consequences which cannot be ignored. So it is time to plan such strategies to overcome the difficulties while participating through scientific research and committed implementations. At this symposium we expect to provide a platform to share information and experiences that have been acquired by senior scientists and also by various laboratories and industrial units.

On behalf of the organizing committee, I cordially invite you to participate in the symposium in Mumbai and enjoy the healthy environment of interaction between the academicians and researchers and students. We would be delighted to have you with us on this occasion.

NSCERP- 2009

Scientific Programme

●The official language of the symposium will be English. The symposium presentations will comprise of invited lectures of 30 minutes each. Oral presentations (12 + 3 min) and poster presentations (80 X 100 cm).

Scientific sessions will be grouped under following heads:

- MOLECULAR ENDOCRINOLOGY
- GROWTH, METABOLISM AND REPRODUCTIVE PHYSIOLOGY
- REPRODUCTIVE ENDOCRINOLOGY
- NEUROENDOCRINOLOGY
- GENOMICS AND ENDOCRINE DISRUPTION
- IMMUNOENDOCRINOLOGY
- INVERTEBRATE ENDOCRINOLOGY
- CHRONOBIOLOGY AND BEHAVIORAL ENDOCRINOLOGY
- DEVELOPMENT AND CONSERVATION ENDOCRINOLOGY

Registration Fees

Category	Upto 17. 11. 2009	After 17. 11.2009
Faculty	Rs. 1000	Rs. 1200
Student	Rs. 500	Rs. 600

The Institute

The Institute of Science, Mumbai, erstwhile the Royal Institute of Science (RIS) has a glorious tradition of almost 100 years of post-graduate centre for teaching and research in science. Over the years, the institute has come to occupy a place of repute in academic and scientific world. As an academic institution, the Institute has not only succeeded in setting and maintaining high standards of research and teaching, but has also provided an atmosphere congenial for the pursuit of science. It has nine academic departments covering Biochemistry, Biotechnology, Botany, Chemistry (Analytical, Inorganic, Organic and Physical), Environmental Science, Mathematics, Microbiology, Physics, and Zoology.

Education aims at learning and research helps in expansion of ideas. This is supported in tenets of the motto of the Institute, “It's good to seek the causes of things”, which has been followed over the years at the Institute. Although it has been brought under the umbrella of the Government of Maharashtra, the Institute of Science has maintained its own culture, tradition and identity.

Department of Zoology

The department today offers both M.Sc. and Ph. D. programme. These programme affiliated to University of Mumbai are recognized as one of the reputed courses in the field. In recent period, adequate facilities have been built up to conduct advanced research in most areas of endocrinology, oceanography and other modern fields in biology. Reproductive Endocrinology, Reproductive Physiology, Fertility and Sterility, Aquaculture, Marine Biotechnology, Coastal Biodiversity, Marine Ecology, Toxicology, Parasitology, Environmental Pollution and Molecular Taxonomy are some of the key areas that are actively being pursued.
